The greatness and the prosperity of Richmond depends, not on her railroads and steamships, but on you men who have carried this triumph through tonight. If is due to you young men, you boys, that you have done this thing. After the Revolution those who had been engaged in thist great struggle founded the Society of the Cincannati. I would suggest to-night that we continue this organization for the good of Richmond, as a new Cincinnati, for the peace, prosperity, goodness and plety of Richmond."

Mr. Charles S. Ward was then called on, Mr. Ward was high in his praise for the excellent work done by the men of Richmond, making a number of complimentary comparisons with the well-known Baltimore campaign. He said, in part:

The suggestion was made about fleadquarters that should the gift hold good it would be used in the manner that Miss Gould would probably prefer, the furnishing of a boys annex to the building. The suggestion was also made that the gift might be used in thoroughly fireproofing the proposed building.

The chairman of the young business men's committee was Mr. N. D. Sills and the secretary Mr. W. Y. Reithard, athletic instructor at the association.

The members of the young business men's committee bore the greater part of the buyden of the campaign from start until finish, A number of the citizens' committee worked energetically and faithfully throughout the campaign, but they did not get the support that either the cause or their efforts merited. The leaders were Mr. Bryan the chairman, and Mr. O. A. Hawkins president of the fichimond answeriation.

The daily reports of the young men were good from the start, only once falling below the $5,000 Ine. They were asked to get $50,000. They did this before the end of the second week, and raised about $75,000 in all.

Senator Rayner Criticizes Manner in Which President Has Extended Prerogatives.

"DANGEROUS AND INSIDIOUS"

Root's View of Enlargement of Federal Power at Expense of States Menac to Institutions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31.— Senator Rayner's address on the expan-sion of executive prerogatives, Senator Lodge's brief reply, and an extended dis-cussion of the administration of the pub-lic land laws by Senator Heyburn con-stituted to-day's proceedings in the Sen-situated to-day's proceedings in the Sensite.

Disclaiming any intention of "assailing" President Roosevelt, and professing for him profound personal esteem, Senator Rayner addressed the Senate at considerable length in critical review of what he termed the President's usurpation of governmental functions not conferred on him by the Constitution.

He first alluded to the recent speech of Secretary Root, in which was described the gradual enlargement of Federal power at the expense of the States.

"I regard this doctrine," said Mr. Rayner, "thus announced, adhered to and emphasized as a most dangerous and insidious attack on the institutions of the country." He said that because these doctrines were being constantly flustrated
in the administration of the government
"they must be taken, as they were intended to be taken, as manifesting the purpose of the present administration to carry this new doctrine of constitutional construction into execution whenever the opportunity or emergency may arise for its exercise. The President is laboring under the honest impression that he is responsible to the country for the legislation of Congress."

lation of Congress."

The Schley case was reviewed by Mr. Rayner. He predicted that the Schley case would yet be reopened, just as a similar case had recently been in another land. "Admiral Schley shall be omer land. Admiral Schiey shall be heard, he announced. "Living or dead, his cause shall be heard. I have never known an injustice of this sort to have been done that the occasion did not arise to redress it."

Senator Lodge replied briefly to Mr Senator Lodge replied briefly to air.

TO NAME A NEGRO FOR PORT-SURVEYOR

Said That the President Will Appoint Ralph Tyler Without Consulting Ohio Senators.

Consulting Ohio Senators.

(From Our Regular Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, D. C., January 21.—
Senator Foraker might have won a victory over the President in the "Joint debate" of the two at the dinner of the Geldron Chib last Saturday night, but the last move was the President's. It is understood that Mr. Roosevelt, in order to show that he is a sincer friend of the negro, has offered to Ralph Tyler, a negro, the position of surveyor of the port of Cincinnati.

It is understood, furthermore, that the offer of the position, or the decision to offer it, was made after consultation with Booker T. Washington, and that neither of the Ohio Senators was consulted.

It is understood that neither Senator Foraker nor Senator Dick will oppose the confirmation of the negro, who, by the way, is not a citizen of Cincinnati, but resides in Columbus. It is evidently the intention of the Senators to put up to the Fresident the duty of meeting the denunclations of the Ohio people, which will follow the appointment of a darkey to such a important position.

According to City Attorney Pollard's construction of the ordaining clause of construction of the ordaining clause of the Umlant ordinance for the midnight closing of saloans, that ordinance becomes effective at 12 o'clock midnight to-night, February 1st. The ordinance prescribes that it shall be effective "from and after February 1st, 1907." There was considerable doubt yesterday among many persons interested whether the law would become effective at midnight last night or to-night.

Little progress has been made, apparently, in the preparations necessary to obey the provisions of the ordinance. These are stringent and sweeping. Chief-of-Police Werner has instructed his force as to the terms of the new ordinance, and it will be strictly enforced from to-night.
